OFFICERS ELECTED

Yesterday by the Ohio Valley Trades Assembly.

MR. RILEY ELECTED PRESIDENT

OVER VICE PRESIDENT A. L. BAUER, IN A CLOSE CONTEST. TOM SALISBURY SUCCESSFUL FOR THE SECRETARYSHIP OVER OSCAR HOWARD, OF THE TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION—A GENERAL CUT IN SALARIES WAS MADE—ROUTINE BUSINESS TRANSACTED BY THE ASSEMBLY.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, after transaction of routine business and the admission of the newly elected delegates, the annual election of officers was held. First the question of salaries came up and there was an interesting discussion. The motion that salaries should remain the same as last year was defeated, 18 to 16. Ex-President Tighe then moved that salaries be fixed as follows: Secretary, $30; janitor and trustee, $50; three trustees, $1 each; treasurer, $10; janitress, $120. This would be a saving of $102 annually. It was also suggested that expenses could be lowered by giving up the permanent hall and renting a hall for the twenty-six meetings held annually. Amendments to fix the salary of the secretary were made, the figures being $40 and $60 per year. Mr. Williams introduced a substitute as follows: Secretary, $30; treasurer, $10; three trustees, $5 each; janitor, $34; janitress, $36. It was stated that the Pythian castle could be secured for $40 a year, a saving to the assembly of at least $200. After a decision by the chair had been appealed from and not sustained, the Williams substitute was lost, 22 to 14. Then the Donley amendment providing that the secretary's salary be fixed at $50, was put and defeated, 22 to 16. Then the Bauer amendment, fixing the secretary's salary at $10 a quarter, was defeated 19 to 14. The original Tighe motion was next put and defeated 20 to 18. Then a motion that the secretary's salary be fixed at $30 was made, and two amendments and a substitute were offered. Finally the amendment fixing the salary at $30 was carried, 23 to 22. A motion was made that the janitor's salary be fixed at $60 per year. An amendment for $34 was defeated. The original motion was then passed.

Mr. Tighe then proceeded further along the lines of his first salary motion, and moved that the trustees receive $1 per year. There were amendments for $5 and $2.50. The two-and-one-half people won, 35 to 1.

A motion to fix the treasurer's salary at $10. There was an amendment for $5. The voters won easily.

The retrenchment people followed up their fight by suggesting reductions on committee work. This required an amendment to the constitution. There was some opposition, however, and nothing was done.

Officers were then elected. The following were nominated for president: A. L. Bauer, W. H. H. Riley, F. J. Nelson. Nominations closed and the first ballot resulted as follows:

Bauer ..... 23
Riley ..... 22
Nelson ..... 3

The lowest candidate was dropped and the second ballot taken, resulting as follows:

Bauer ..... 23
Riley ..... 25

Mr. Riley was declared elected and the vice president was next taken up and these nominations were made: Bion Williams and Ed Brown. The ballot resulted in the election of Mr. Williams, as follows:

Williams ..... 33
Brown ..... 14

For the secretaryship these nominations were made: Thomas V. Salisbury, editor of the Ohio Valley Workman, and Oscar Howard, secretary of the typographical union. The vote stood as follows:

Salisbury ..... 28
Howard ..... 21

These were nominated for treasurer: John Donahue, A. L. Bauer, Herman Knoke, George Weber, E. W. Collins, A. A. Harris, Messrs. Donahue and Bauer wanted to decline and were allowed to do so. Oscar Howard also declined. There being opposition, Mr. Knoke was not eligible to succeed himself. The first ballot:

Collins ..... 23
Harris ..... 15
Howard ..... 3
Weber ..... 2

Then came the election of trustees, and upon motion it was ruled that the highest three should be declared elected on the first ballot. This resulted in the election of Messrs. Ned Sims, John Donahue and J. F. Harris, as follows:

Donahue ..... 14
Gillies ..... 10
Harris ..... 25
Thomas ..... 7
Weber ..... 13
Silvey ..... 11
Bennett ..... 4
Coates ..... 5
Sims ..... 25
Tighe ..... 1

The finance committee is composed of Messrs. Bauer, O'Neill and Pritchard, who were chosen without opposition. The following delegates were chosen to represent the assembly in the Eastern Ohio Trades Council: Messrs. Stein, Bennett and Boes.

ROUTINE BUSINESS.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock by President Ned Sims. There was a large attendance, this being the first meeting of the assembly's new year. The following new delegates were admitted and obligated:

Local No. 53, Brewery Workers—Garle Sadder, Jr., Frederick Kieversahl, Jacob Willert.

Local No. 55, A. F. G. W. U.—C. M. Donley.

Local No. 2, Tobacco Workers—Robert Smith, Edward Jefferson.

Crescent Lodge No. 4, Amalgamated

Association—Joseph Purcell, Peter Walt, Fred Williams.

Friendship Lodge No. 2, Amalgamated Association—M. F. Tighe, Herman Knoke, William O'Neill.

Local No. 6, Potters—T. J. Duffy, Andrew Goiner, Hales.

A number of boycotts were appointed as progressing.

The finance committee reported balance in the treasury January 9, $504.54; other assets, $183. Receipts from the trustees were reported at $54.50.

A letter from President McKinley's secretary was read, acknowledging the receipt of the assembly's protest against the appointment of Judge Paxson as a member of the inter-state commission.

A letter from Senator Elihu Root, acknowledging receipt of the assembly's protest regarding the annexation of Hawaii and the Yukon relief expedition. A similar communication was received from Senator Faulkner.

The several recommendations embodied in the annual address of President Sims, read at the last meeting, were taken up and adopted.

Unions in arrears for rent of the assembly hall were reported by the trustees. They were requested to settle at once.

The assembly received copies of National Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright's report, which was acknowledged.

Secretary Thomas J. Duffy made his annual report. He urged the necessity of economy. Without the large revenue from the Labor Day picnic, there would be a large deficiency each year. It should be remembered that this source of revenue is at the best precarious.

Weather and public favor had been all that could be desired in the past, but there is no assurance of the same good fortune in the future. Thirty-three organizations are on the assembly's roll; two new locals were added during 1897. The average attendance during the year was thirty-nine members, not a good percentage. It was recommended that local unions elect delegates who will attend the assembly meetings. The secretary also submitted a tabulation showing the percentage of attendance by delegates. The secretary was the only one having a percentage of 100. Other top-notchers were, John Donahue, 96; Herman Knoke, 96; Ned Sims, 95; W. H. Riley, 92; Fred Williams, 92. James Weidner was at the foot with 7 per cent.

THE WHEELING BUTCHERS

Want the New Crematory Located in Fulton—A Change Not Likely.

The Wheeling Butchers' Association, it is understood, is favorable to having Mr. Howland locate his utilization plant at Fulton, now that council has given him the privilege of locating it in the Sixth ward. The association some time ago was thinking of entering the field as a competitor for the cremation of the city's garbage, but afterward gave the plan up. A member of the association, speaking of the matter, said yesterday that as soon as Mr. Howland arrives here from Philadelphia, the butchers may make overtures to him to induce him to build his plant at Fulton.

The association has a small plant at Fulton, which turns out a fertilizer, and it is thought a more profitable arrangement could be made with Mr. Howland. It is hardly likely Fulton citizens would object to the scheme if Mr. Howland's plant is not offensive, while the scent enjoyed from the one now at Fulton is anything but delicious.

However, it is not probable that council will consent to a change of location, as it is considered important that the plant be located within the city limits, where council could exercise proper supervision and control of its operations.

The South Side people who objected to the location of the plant in their part of town, are said to have given up the idea of securing an injunction, for the reason that the contract entered into between Howland and the city provides for the cessation of operations at the plant in the event of its becoming offensive.
